About me

I am an Italian, currently living in Taiwan. Computer science is my biggest interest and I love programming. Since I was a teenager, I have had a close relationship with the Oriental world. I have lived in Shanghai for several years, which helped me to mature.

In the various chapters of my life, I have been able to learn a lot and forge my character: I am polite, sociable, outgoing and also very sportive.

I believe the characteristic that represents me most is "never giving up". When faced with difficulties, I always try to find a solution, looking forward to learning new things at the same time.

UNIVERSITY FINAL PROJECT

Project Name: LINEBot - DRONE RENTAL

Customer: University of Shih Chien

OS: Windows, Android

Tools: HTML, CSS, PHP, LINE, LINE Developers, Heroku, GitHub

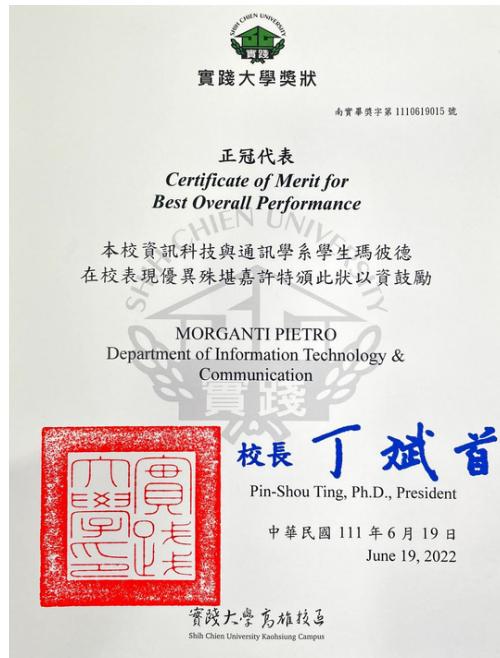

Description:

Shin Chien University Kaohsiung Campus has been approved to set up an "examination venue for UAV operation certificate". The Extension Education Section also opened a "UAV professional operation training curriculum ", to response the needs of students, and provided UAV rental services. Because there is not have a complete rental system for the rental service, the Line group is currently used to provide services, and uses manpower to arrange appointment information is not easy to obtain and time-consuming, so set a complete rental system has become the demand. According to the "Digital report 2020 Taiwan report", LINE is the predominant communication App in Taiwan, and its chat robot has also become a useful tool for publicity and automation. This study uses LINE BOT to establish the front-end user interface, and uses php and MYSQL to operate the web background program.

The collage illustrates the project's main components:

- LINE Group Chat: Shows interactions between a user (PieMorga97) and a bot. The bot greets the user and provides course information, exam details, and booking confirmation.
- Mobile Home Screen: Shows the 'USC-無人機租借' app icon on a smartphone.
- Booking and Payment Interface: A screenshot of the app's booking screen. It shows a large image of a quadcopter drone, a '預約登記' (Booking Registration) button, and fields for entering a name and selecting a date.
